NO COMPROMISE ON LIQUOR LICENSES

Common Council Stands as Stonewall Against Any Change.

CONFERENCES F A I L.

Aldermen's Proposal to Increase Tax Seventy-Five Dollars Rejected by Council Committee.

The City Council was in session over three hours last night, during which time a large volume of miscellaneous business was transacted, but all efforts to break the deadlock in reference to the license tax on dealers in liquor failed, and the matter seems as far from settlement as ever. The Board of Aldermen took up the measure, by receding from their former action in refusing to concur with the Common Council in increasing the tax one hundred dollars, and amended the bill by making increases of fifty dollars on all dealers. The ordinance was sent to the lower board, but was soon returned with the endorsement that they adhered to their former action in making the increase one hundred dollars. The Aldermen then appointed a conference committee to meet a similar committee from the lower board, but after a long consultation Messrs. Ogden and Hill, who had been appointed on the part of the upper board, reported that no agreement had been reached, although they had suggested that the license tax be increased seventy-five dollars. It was then 11:15 o'clock, and both boards adjourned with the issue still unsettled no agreement in sight.

Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen was called to order shortly after eight o'clock.

Mr. Marbury called up a communication from the trustees of the Alexandria Hospital notifying Council that certain gentlemen had been selected as members of the Board of Trustees, which Council was asked to affirm. The notification had been endorsed by the Common Council several weeks ago, but laid on the table in the upper board. Mr. Marbury, stated that he had investigated the matter and that it was customary for the names of trustees of the institution to be submitted to the Council for approval. He hoped the Aldermen would concur in the action of the lower board by endorsing the selections.

Mr. Ballenger said he had ascertained that it had been the custom for Council to elect the trustees, but he had no objection to vote for Mr. Marbury's motion.

After several questions had been asked by different members, Mr. Hill moved that the Aldermen concur in the action of Common Council by endorsing the selections. His motion was adopted.

President Marbury stated that he had met President Brumback, of the Common Council, and had endeavored to bring about an agreement as to the amount of increase in the licenses for the sale of liquor, but that no adjustment of the differences between the two boards had been effected. He said that while he would have had his proposition sustained by the members of the Aldermen, Mr. Brumback was unable to say that a majority of his board would have confirmed any action he might have taken to break the deadlock, although he seemed anxious to bring the issue to a close

Mr. Field said it was his understanding that President Marbury would receive the endorsement of the board in whatever action he took to bring about the passage of the bill.

Mr. Brill, however, did not so understand it when the presidents of the two boards took charge of the matter.

Mr. Ballenger said Mr. Marbury's course would have been confirmed by the board.

Mr. Marbury stated that President Brumback had said that the Common Council would not adopt the proposition that he (Mr. Marbury) had made in order to bring about a compromise.

Mr. Ogden asked President Marbury if a counter proposition had been made.

President Marbury said it had been suggested that the license tax be increased $100.

On motion of Mr. Brill President Marbury's report was adopted.

The resolution providing that the two presidents be constituted a conference committee and the license ordinance were then sent to the Common Council, but that board soon returned them.

An interchange of opinion followed as to what course should be pursued.

Mr. Brill favored the return of the papers to the lower board, but President Marbury and others saw no way out of the deadlock by that course.

Mr. Brill said the Board of Aldermen had been charged with holding up the license bill. It was, he alleged, an unjust aspersion. The members of the board had been criticised collectively and singly by members of the Common Council, which was an injustice. The odium belonged to the Common Council. Mr. Brill further said that the proposed increase in the license tax on liquor dealers was not commensurate with the business at present. Hs did not speak in his own private interests but in the interests of all concerned. He alleged that conditions were by no means encouraging at present to those who obeyed laws.

Mr. Brill, moved that the license bill be recommitted to the finance committee.

President Marbury and Mr. Field saw no reason why this should be done, as the Committee had already considered the matter and made their report.

Mr. Brill insisted upon his motion and upon a vote being taken it was declared lost.

Mr. Field moved that the Aldermen recede from their action in adopting the ordinance as amended, and his motion prevailed. Ayes, 7, No. Mr. Brill.

Mr. Field then moved that the ordinance be passed as it came from the Common Council. This was lost by the following vote: Ayes, Messrs. Ballenger, Field, Ogden and Summers—4. Noes, Messrs. Hill Brill, Fitzgerald and Mr. President—4

Mr. Summers moved that the license tax on liquor dealers be placed at $50.

Mr. Ogden, made an amendment that the increase be $75.

Mr. Ogden's motion was lost by the following vote: Ayes Messrs. Ballenger and Ogen—2. Noes, Messrs. Hill, Brill, Field, Fitzgerald, Summers and Mr. President—6.

A vote was then taken on Mr. Summer's motion to make the increase $50, and it was adopted by the following vote: Ayes, Messrs. Hill, Brill. Bailenger, Fitzgerald, Summers and Mr. President—6. Noes, Messrs. Field, and Ogden—2.

The ordinance was sent to the Common Council, but that board soon returned it with the endorsement that they adhered to their former action.

Mr. Ogden suggested that a conference committee be appointed in order that it might be apparent that the Aldermen were acting in good faith, and he made a motion to that effect which was adopted. Messrs. Ogden and Hill were appointed.

After being out for over half an hour the committee reported that they had been unable to arrive at an agreement with Messrs. Williams and Harrison, of the lower board. They stated that they had proposed that the license tax on liquor dealers be increased $75, but the suggestion had been declined by the members from the Common Council.

The committee was discharged and the Aldermen adjourned.

Common Council

The City Council held an extended meeting last night at which numerous measures of greater or less importance were passed, but at which no decision in regard to the ilcence law was reached.

Council was called to order at 8 o'clock, all members were present except Mr. Chhauncey, and without discussion, the board passed the appropriation bill carrying a total of $171,230.

On recommendation oft he finance committee $2800 was appropriated

CONVENTION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE

Plans For National Vice Crusade Have Been Completed.

TRIP DOWN POTOMAC.

Members Visit Marshall Hall Today and Enjoy Shad Bake—Later Engage in a Dance.

Washington, June 11.—Delegates to the twentieth annual convention of the International Association of Police Chiefs are on a down-river outing today.

With the strenuous work of laying plans for a national social vice crusade completed, the officials today laid aside business in favor of a big excursion.

At 10 o'clock they boarded the steamer Charles MacAlester, with their wives and started for Mount Vernon. At 1 o'clock they will continue to Marshall Hall for recreation and contests.

A 1,000-fish shad bake will be served at 2 o'clock. There will be plenty of other good things to eat as the result of the commisary efforts of the entertainment committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Although some of the chiefs have taken a stand against the cabaret, such a performance is scheduled as part of the afternoon's entertainment. It will not have, however, any of the objectionable features of which the officials have complained.

A few addresses will be made at 3 o'clock, and a dance will be held at 5 o'clock. Then the party will come back by moonlight. Another sightseeing trip around the city is scheduled for tomorrow morning, but business will be resumed in the afternoon session.

Election of officers will probably be held. Major Sylvester, of this city, the present president, will probably be re-elected. Grand Rapids and New York are bidding for the next convention, and this question will be settled tomorrow.

BRAZILIAN GUEST OF THE NATION

Dr. Muller, Minister of Foreign Affairs, in Washington.

CAME ON MAYFLOWER.

Dolphin and Sylph Accompany Presidents' Yacht up the Potomac Early This Morning.

Washington, June 11.—Dr. Laro Mueller, Brazilian ministers of foreign affairs, was officially welcomed to Washington at 9:30 o'clock this morning, when accompanied by a distinguished official party which welcomed him at sea, he arrived at the navy yard.

Escorted by a squadron of cavalry from Fort Myer, the party then proceeded to the New Willard Hotel, which will be the Brazilian envoy's headquarters while in Washington.

Informal receptions were held at the hotel this morning. This afternoon Dr. Muller will have a cavalry escort when he goes to the White House to pay his respects to President Wilson. This evening President Wilson will give a reception to the visitors.

Rough weather off the capes delayed the arival of the Brazilian battleship Minas Geraes at Hampton Roads yesterday and it was not until 5:30 in the evening that the warship and its American naval escort anchored in the roads.

Dr. Muller was welcomed to this country by Secretary Bryan, who made a brief address asking the visitor to accept the freedom of the nation and to be assured of this country's desire to gratify his every wish.

The start for Washington with Dr. Muller and Secretary Bryan aboard the Presidential yacht Mayflower and the others on the yachts Dolphin and Sylph, was then made, and on the arrival at navy yard this morning a program of entertainment was bebun which will continue until Dr. Muller leaves Sunday night.

The Brazilian foreign minister who is in the country to repay the visit made to Brazil in 1906 by Elihu Root, then Secretary of State, will remain a month, visiting many cities before embarking on the return trip at San Francisco, after selecting a site for the Brazillian building at the Panama-Pacfic exposition.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Publishers of newspapers have lost in their struggle before the courts to have legislation in the postoffice appropriation act of August 24, 1912, relating to their second class privileges, declared unconstitutional. The legislation called in question was an amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill which requires newspapers to file with the postmaster general semi-annually sworn statements disclosing the names and addresses of the editorial and business managers, the stockholders, bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders, and as to daily newspapers, requires them to disclose their circulation and to publish their statement. The legislation also requires that all matter that is paid for shall be plainly marked as an advertisement.

That Mrs. Edith Forrest and George Steele were murdered by a party or parties unknown was the verdict of the coroner's jury returned yesterday in the case of two bodies found Monday night near Russell, Ky. The man's watch and quite a sum of money he is said to have had when he disappeared were missing. His pocketbook was found on his body, but it was empty. Both bodies were decomposed to such an extent that it was estimated that they had been without life for six months.

Arthur Kellar, a railway employe, living in Harrisonville,Mo., was murdered with an axe as he lay asleep in his room, Monday night, and his 7-year-old daughter was seriously wounded. Nathan Kellar, brother of the murdered man, testified at the inquest that Arthur carried a life insurance policy in a fraternal order for $1,000, and that his wife was the beneficiary. There was an insurance policy on $1,000 on the life of Margaret, the wounded daughter, also, the brother said, but he was not sure who was the beneficiary of the latter policy. Mrs. Kellar said a blow was aimed at her head but the axe caught in the canopy of the bed.

The young French aviator, Marcel G. Brindome Desmoulinas, yesterday beat all distance records by flying from Paris to Warsaw by way of Berlin, a distance of 1,500 kilometers (approximately 933 miles), in thirteen hours, and, including stops, attained an average speed of 150 kilomsters (93.3 miles) an hour.

Separation of white clerks and employes from negroes in the various government departments is sought in a bill introduced in the House yesterday by Representative J. B. Aswell, of Louisiana. The measure provides that while there shall be no discrimination in favor of or against employes of equal efficiency on account of race, white clerks shall not be required to occupy the same offices in the government departments with negroes nor be under orders of negroes, and that except in cases of emergency white clerks in the railway mail service shall not have to serve in the same mail car with negro clerks.

The British House of Commons last night passed the second reading of the home rule for Ireland bill without division, an amendment by Mr. Balfour for the rejection of the measure having been previously defeated by a vote of 368 to 270. The announcement of the figures was received with cheering by liberals and nationalists. The debate was marked by fiery declarations by the opposition speakers, who predicted the imposition of home rule would result in civil war in Ireland.

Three years to day after the discovery of the body of his wife in the waters of Lake Como, Italy, Porter Charlton lost his last fight against being turned over by his native land to the Italian government for trial on the charge of murder. The Supreme Court yesterday sustained the State Department's decision to deliver Charlton in compliance with Italy's demand.

One woman was shot and killed, seven other persons wounded by bullets, and many others, including several policemen, were hurt by flying missiles in a strike riot outside the Ipswich Hosiery Mills at Ipswich, Mass., last night. Fifteen persons, including leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World, were arrested.

NO WIDESPREAD DAMAGE TO CROPS

No Need of Fear of Vegetable or Fruit Famine by Cold Wave.

FROSTS LAST NIGHT.

Temperature Reported Below Freezing Point in Several States—Slowly Rising Temperature Predicted.

Washington, une 11.—Officials of the Department of Agriculture believe that there will be no great or widespread damage to crops as a result of the unseasonable cold weather now prevailing over much of the country.

No official reports have as yet been received by the department but the experts express the opinion that there need be no fear of a fruit or vegetable famine, and said that despite the predictions of the Weather Bureau that the cool spell will continue for the next 36 hours, probably no geat harm would be done to the corn and other chops. The early spring planting and the favorable condition of these crops are counted upon to offset any effect the weather may have.

"I believe," said Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Galloway, "that the injury to the fruit crop because of the cold weather, will be comparatively insignificant, from the fact that the areas where there is frost are comparatively limited and, at this time of the year, frost could only possibly occur in very limited areas. Therefore, so far as the general fruit crop is concerned, the damage would be immaterial."

Temperatures below the freezing point were reported to the weather bureau from central Pennsylvania and points in New Jersey. Frosts were general throughout the moutains of Virginia and Maryland. Reports from points all the way from Vermont and Wisconsin told of frosts of more or less severity.

Killed by Sister-in-law

James Kendrick, 28 years old, a member of the fire department of Huntington, W. Va., was shot and instantly killed late yesterday afternoon by Miss Lead Perdue, a sister of his first wife, durin ga quarrel over the possession of Kendrick's two-year-old child. Two weeks ago Kendrick married Miss Olive Frail, and yesterday Kendrick went to the home of his sister-in-law to take the child from Miss Perdue, who had been keeping it since the death of its mother, more than a year ago. Miss Perdue refused to surrender the child and a quarrel ensued, in which she shot Kendrick. Miss Perdue was placed under arrest. She says that Kendrick had been engaged to marry her and that she had killed him because he had not kept his promise to her and had married someone else.

The sidewheel steamer Charles Werner, which is to run excursions between this city and River View, will arrive here within the next day or two, according to report. She is now at Baltimore being overhauled and made ready for service out of this city.

Certificates in Palmer Methods of business penmanship, presented by A. N. Palmer Co. of Cedar Rapids, Iowa will be conferred upon all who have successfully completed the course in writing; prizes for scholarship in the different grades as well as for highest averages in studies and composition in the graduating class, all of which are gifts from former graduates of the school, will be presented on Thursday morning, instead of at the closing

The commencement exercises will take place in Lannon's Opera House at 3 o'clock on Friday, in the presence of the Right Rev. Bishop of the Diocese and a large number of visiting clergy. It promises to be of unusual interest, as it will present St. Mary'S two hundred and fifty pupils, among them five graduates in the Academic Course and a class of twenty in the Commercial. Invitations have been issued to members of St. Mary's Alumnae and the graduates' friends. All others will be admitted only by ticket. The closing remarks and address to graduates will be made by Bishop O'Connell whose interest in all things educational makes him an authority on the subject, while his devoted love for Virginia where he spent the best years of his young priesthood and to which he returned as Bishop to labor in the upbuilding of the Church in the diocese, has already won for him a place in the hearts of his people that will insure him a warm welcome on this occasion.

A Practical Gift to the Bride: "Open-Stock" Dinnerware

A very happy custom for members of the immediate family or dear friends of the bride is the giving of "Open-stock" Dinnerware. An entire set or a number of pieces selected from our extesive assortment, as may be desired, to establish a foundation. To these the bride may add as she finds pleasure or the necessity requires,either through breakage or enlargement of the service, with the asurance of the patterns being on hand whenever this occasion may arise. "Open-stock" patterns are shown by us in a very large variety of decorations in America and English China and Porcelain, Austriani, Germany and French China and the well-known Haviland make.

The care and discrimination which we exercise in selecting the patterns results in our placing before patrons only those effects that we know will appeal to them in attractiveness, refined simplicity, or more ornate decorations.

Our assortments are now in very extensive display in our desire to meet the demands of the new housekeeper.

MACHINE AND ANTI-MACHINE.

State Senator King Makes Caustic Reply to Critics.

Richmond, Va., June 11.—Senator King, one of the candidates for attorney-general of the state denies that he is either a machine or an anti-machine adherent. He does his own thinking, he declares, reaches his own conclusions and votes as he sees fit.

Senator King makes the following statement, as to machine and anti-machine:

"That is the cry that has always been made by the demagogue. In some states it has ben effective, but in Virginia no candidate that raised the cry of 'machine,' ever won success. Jones and Glass made a fight two years ago upon the sole issue of 'machine,' with the result that Martin and Swanson were swept into office by the biggest majorities ever given candidates in the Democratic party. Last year here, in the Third district, ex-Governor A. J. Montague, who is generally known as an anti-machine man, made a clean and successful race for congress, and the word 'machine' was not uttered during the campaign.

"There are two kinds of politicians for whom I have no regard. The one is the kind that gets bigger than his party, and the other is the kind that is small enough to be tied to any faction of his party.

"The newspapers in the last day or two have stated that I was a machine man. If refusing to damn the dominant faction of the Democratic party constitutes me a machine man, or if nominating Jack Montague for Governor in 1901 constitutes me a machine man, or if consistenly supporting Thomas S. Martin for the United States Senate constitutes me a machine man, or if supporting Harry Tucker for governor constitutes me a machine man, or if carrying to Norfolk last year one of the few delegations instructed for Woodrow Wilson constitutes me a machine man, I plead guilty to the charge.

"I have always reserved and exercised the right to do my own thinking within the party. I have followed the dictates of my conscience in political matters, and if there exists in the Democratic party in Virginia a gigantic monster that stifles ambition and thwarts the will of the people, I have never been under the spell of its malign influence, and I have no patience with those who cry 'machine' and are yet willing to take any votes that can be gotten from its members."

BLAMES POLITICS.

C. S. Sherwood, of Portsmouth, Makes Charge.

Washington, June 11—That politics has prevented protective legislation for food fish in Virginia, is a charge made by C. S. Sherwood, a well-known business man of Portsmouth, Va., who for years has been interested in a movement to destroy pound nets in Virginia waters.

Mr. Sherwood has written a letter to Congressman J. Charles Linthicum, of Maryland, the author of the proposed federal food fish protective bills in the house, telling him of the troubles in Virginia over fish legislation. Referring to a suggestion that politics has stood in the way of remedial legislation in Virginia. Mr. Sherwood says in his letter:

"I have given some thought to this subject (fish legislation) and from observations, public documents, reports, etc., for the past six or seven years, I can confirm the suggestion that politics has prevented adequate legislation in Virginia. In fact, so strenuous and unmindful of the interests of the general public has the influence been exerted that no regard has been paid either to conservation or public revenue that those who have sought an opportunity to appear before the committees of the general assembly of Virginia in behalf of these features have been refused the privilige of presenting their views."

Writ of Error Refused.

Fredricksburg, Va., June 11,—The Supreme Court of Virginia, in session at Wytheville, has declined to grant a writ of error in the case of Nelson V. Carter, sentenced to death for the murder of his wife, in Spotsylvania county, last February. He will be electrocuted Friday at the penitentiary, unless the Governor names a later date. His aged father Festus Carter, of Spotsylvania county left here Monday to visit his son at the State penitentiary.

DEATH OF CAPT. FOSTER.

Well Known Soldier and Lawyer Passes Away in Leesburg.

Leesburg, Va., June 11. — James William Foster, aged 69 years, died at his residence in Leesburg yesterday afternoon. Besides his wife he is survived by four children—Mrs. T. Francis Green, James William Foster, Jr., Leslie Coombs Foster, and Allen Thurman Foster.

Captain Foster was a son of the late Thomas R. Foster. He was born in Fauquier County, Va., in 1844. When just 17 he enlisted in the Confederate army, first serving with the command of General Turner Ashby, and later with Colonel Mosby, serving with conspicuous gallantry throughout the war as captain of the latter command. After the close of the war he graduated in the law at the University of Virginia, and for some time practiced in partnership with the late General Eppa Hunton. For several terms he was attorney for the commonwealth for the county of Loudoun. He was widely known and always recognized as a lawyer of aminent ability, and of the highest character, in both of which features he was regarded an ornament and an exemplar.

ELLYSON HONORED.

Richmond College Trustees Re-Elect Old Officers.

Richmond, Va., June 1.—Meeting in annual session yesterday morning the board of trustees of Richmond College again honored Lieut-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson with the presidency of the body. The other officers were re-elected, as follows: A. W. Patterson vice-president; Dr. Charles H. Ryland, secretary, and B Tabb West, treasurer.

Treasurer West read his annual report in regard to the financial condition of the corporation. By the figures submitted to the board, the assets of Richmond College are placed at $1,680,072.87, which includes stocks and bonds, real estate and loans, endowments, cash and accounts due. The total income from all sources was $66,628.87 against an expenditure of $57,608.92. Deducting a deficit of $1,233.97 from Richmond Academy the net excess of income over expenditures is $7,785.98.

REPUBLICAN PROSPECTS.

Stuart Will Have Walkover For the Governorship.

Washington, June 11.—Republican leaders of Virginia, it developed here today, are seriously considering a plan of making no organized opposition to Henry C. Stuart, who will be nominated by the Democrats for governor without lifting his hand.

All of the big leaders have not agreed to this plan, but it is favored by men close to Congressman Bascom Slemp, the state chairman. Mr. Slemp is now absent from Washington seeking rest. His health has not been robust this past winter.

Harris Hoge, of Ronoake, it is stated, is the only Republican after the Republican nomination. If a convention is held, he will get the nomination hands down. Mr. Hoge is feared by some of the leaders, will not make a strong candidate against Henry C. Stuart.

There are two reasans advanced by the Republicans in favor of no state convention to name a ticket. One is that Mr. Stuart will sweep the state like wildfire. Nothing can prevent an unprecedented majority. This will further discredit the Republican party if it opposes him with a ticket nominated by a state convention. Another reasons is that period of inactivity will discourage the office-holding crowd who now dominate the party and pave the way for new blood to come in four years hence and give the party some vitality.

DEADLOCK AS FIRM AS EVER.

The hopes of those who cherished the dream that thep resent unfortunate deadlock in the City Council would be broken at last night's regular meeting were shattered, when both boards shortly after eleven o'clock adjourned with no indications of arriving at a satisfactory agreement as to the amount of license tax to be assessed against liquor dealers this year.

The Board of Aldermen took the initiative by receding from their former action in refusing to pass the bill as it came from the finance committee and adopted by the Common Council. The upper board then amended the ordinance providing for an increase of fifty dollars upon all dealers in liquors. The lower board refused to concur and returned the bill to the Aldermen with the endorsement that that board adhered to its original action making the increase one hundred dollars. The Aldermen then had a committee appointed for the purpose of meeting a similar committee from the Common Council, but they failed to agree.

The members of the Aldermen's committee reported that they had offered to place the increase at seventy-five dollars, but the representatives from the lower board refused to accept any compromise.

The Board of Aldermen seems to think it has done about all that could be expected of them in attempting to bring the issue to a close, and the members think it is now up to the Common Council to show some disposition to recede from their original stand now that the upper board has relaxed from its heretofore stand.

The Aldermen earnestly resent the imputation that they are guilty of holding up the bill and impeding the progress of the business of the city, since their action last night

The members of the Common Council who voted for the one hundred dollar increase are apparently as firm as ever in their convictions, and the outcome of these unfortunate conditions is still problematical.

CHARLTON TO BE GIVEN UP.

In June, 1010, just three years ago, Porter Charlton, a native of Washington, D. C., was charged by the Italian authorities at Lake Como, Italy, with the murder of his wife. Charlton escaped to this country, and has since waged a bitter legal battle to present extradition to answer for his alleged crime. The Supreme Court of the U. S., in an opinion handed down yesterday, decided that he must return, sustaining the construction placed upon our treaty relations with Italy by former Secretary of State Knox.

It has been contended that the treaty between the two nations, especially the agreement concerning the return of fugitives from justice to either nation demanding it, had been violated time after time by the Italian authorities and that, therefore, this country was under no obligations to be bound by the treaty's terms. In this regard the great tribunal, has i nour opinion, justified its action very fully. Justice Lurton's opinion sets forth the fact that crimes committed in Italy are not justifiable in the U. S., and, if extradition were not granted, criminals, might go unpunished. In the other hand, crimes committed in this country are triable in Italy.

Aside from the legal arguments presented by the court, there are strong moral reasons for returning the accused man to Lake Como. A question of the good faith of a nation is at stake. Even conceding that Italy had violated the terms of the treaty, our state department would have put us in a poor light by attempting retaliation of this sort. We are in a position to demand a fair trial for him in the Italian courts and it may be that he will secure an acquittal of the charge of a crime extremely revolting in its details. If guilty of the crime, it would be a travesty upon American justice and a prostitution of our boasted square dealing to keep him from the punishment he so richly deserves.

The right of nations to secure extradition of persons charged with crime should not depend upon, as at present, the terms of individual existing treaties, but upon some broad international agreement, binding upon all nations, and made effective by the parties of the civilized world. The fight of Porter Carlton to evade prosecution in the courts of Italy has cost two much in time and money. He should have been sent back as soon as his return was demanded.

Negro Gets 12 Years for Murder.

Winchester, Va., June 11—Charles Fisher, colored, who was placed on trial in the Corporation Court, charged with firing the shot on April 16 which caused the death 48 hours later of Clyde J. Carpenter, an insurance agent, was found guilty yesterday of second-degree murder and his punishment fixed at 12 years in the Virginia Pentitentiary. Carpenter was shot as he left the home of Minnie Evans, a mulato, with whom he was infatuated. Five of Fisher's companions, who recently signed confessions, will be arraigned for sentence next Monday.

SWOONS AFTER BRAVE DEED

Mother Lowered into Well to Rescue Her Child.

Clarksboro, N. J. June 11.—Mrs. Christian Miller, who saved the life of her four year old daughter under exceptional circumstances, swooned when the child was safely rescued, is recovering, and her physician says she will be able to sit up in a few days.

The family lives on the Hutchinson farm. There is an opening over the pump well, into which is let butter and milk to keep them cool, a plan in vogue years ago on all farms. The mother left the covering loose and the child tilted into the well, in which are several feet of water.

Luckily Mrs. Miller saw the accident and called for help. Three farmhands rushed to her aid. The woman insisted that she alone must be let down to her child. She was lowered with a rope under her arms, and she caught the little girl as she was slowly sinking. Both were raised to safty, when the mother came near falling again from exhaustion.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles I could not get up, without pulling a something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and am not bothered with pains any more and I don't have to go to bed. In fact I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you At all druggists.
